

What is a hook base forklift attachment?

The hook base forklift attachment converts an ordinary forklift into a tow truck. The attachment enables the carriage of trailers and other portable equipment. Steel safety pins are used to slide the attachment into the forks. The attachment is usually powder coated with a blue paint finish. The attachment also comes with options of pintle hook, tow balls and lifting hooks.